Bradlaugh has just offered himself for re-election at Northampton, and it is thought he will be returned, but that the House will refuse to admit him unless he go through the forms prescribed by the Constitution.

LATEST NEWS.

PRESS TELEGRAMS

The following epitome of the latest news by telegraph, from all quarters, is taken from our colleagues—

Montevideo 24

The 1st. and 2nd. of March will be declared holidays, and there will be a general jollification (by order) here and in the departments—review of troops, thundering of cannon, lunch by day and illumination by night, with fireworks in Plaza Independencia.

Mrs. Santos and her children came into town to-day and were near being killed at Arroyo Seco, where a wheel came off the carriage, but all escaped unhurt. The General is expected to-morrow.

Senate sanctioned Brigadier rank for Battle and full Colonel for Tom Larragoitia.

Enrique Moreno will be received as Argentine Minister on Monday next.

The model 'vaporcito' Paz y Trabajo will leave for your Exhibition on Sunday.

Tandil 24

French and Italian Ministers and Admiral Grivel with a large suit of Legation people and several naval officers arrived here this morning. All the Gauls and Ausonians in the place turned out to receive them. Brass bands brayed; rockets banged; the crowd bawled, and then there was a general 'refresco.' Tomorrow a grand banquet will be given to the visitors at the Rocking Stone Hotel, and they have promised to attend the Corso and the ball on Sunday.

San Juan 24.

Line of diligences to Jachal now established.

Telegrams from Chile announce bad market there for cattle, and 1,500 steers unsold.

Mules very lively, and strong demand for export.

Rosario 24.

Letter from Governor Roach just published in which he says that he glories in having contributed to federalise Buenos Ayres.

Wheat and flour dull.

Montevideo 25

Nacion (Vidal's organ) publishes article saying the President will not allow himself to be torn from his high post by force. If he resign, he will do so freely. The army will never rise against the Chief Magistrate; and Santos, even if he could, would not force Vidal to resign before his term of office expires.

Telegraph line between Santos and Rio interrupted by heavy floods.

Santos's paper the Candidato has appeared and says he will be President within a few hours.

THE NORTHERN TERRITORIES

The extension of the Tucuman Railway to Jujuy, the construction of which is now simply a question of a few years, has created for the first time an ever increasing interest in the northern regions of the Argentine Republic. For many years after the delivery of Marmol's impertinent epigram the northern provinces and the Chaco were simply regarded as geographical appanages of the nation, something in the same way as we now regard Central Patagonia. We were ready to go to war with Paraguay for the territory of the Pilcomayo, as we were ready to don armour against Chile for the Tierra del Fuego; but it was not because we deemed either of any intrinsic value, or necessary to the country, but from a sentiment of national vanity, sometimes called pride. People down here ridiculed Santiago, Salta and Jujuy, barely recognizing Tucuman as a moderately civilized sister state. The papers never published anything about them except the news now and then of a local revolution that hardly affected us more than the muttering of distant thunder.

The railway to Tucuman has had the effect of developing the sugar production to such an extent as to oblige us to open our eyes in wonder, and we are anxiously interesting ourselves in obtaining data on this long depised region. We are beginning to realize the fact that the Republic possesses a sugar producing territory equal to that of Cuba. While we in the Litoral were hugging the idea that our ugly wastes of pampa constituted the Republic, we ignored the fact of the existence of a region of mountains and valleys and forests and plains watered by innumerable streams, where twenty millions of souls might thrive and prosper on the unlimited sources of wealth to be developed in the sugar and tobacco plantations, rice fields, rich pastures, and magnificent timber. No doubt, that not all the region we are writing about is equally valuable or productive or beautiful; and it is a somewhat strange fact that we know more about the deserts and sand plains of Santiago and Chaco than of the luxuriant lands watered by hundreds of mountain streams.

As the question of water is intimately connected with the culture of the sugar cane, the great staple of the future in the northern provinces, any data that can be given to the public in reference to it should be interesting. In a former article we gave some details of the important Rio Dulce, in Santiago, the banks of which are thickly populated. We note that we then incurred the error of placing the Juramento in the province of Jujuy, confounding it with the Rio Grande or San Francisco of the latter province. The Juramento, which we would now desire to say something about, as it may play an important role in the colonisation of the Chaco, is the upper part of the Salado, connected with the navigation schemes of the lamented Stephen Rams. The Juramento forms the boundary of the provinces of Santiago and Tucuman, on the east. For hundreds of miles on either side, as far south as Matará, it is populated rather thickly. The original concessions were two leagues frontage on the river and three leagues in depth, but at the present time they are much subdivided. The margins of this river offer an almost unlimited area for sugar, cotton and tobacco plantations. In about latitude 28, near Matara; the 'Juramento' approaches very close to the 'Rio Dulce' and to the town of Santiago. From Matara up to a point called Candelaria, the 'Juramento' is navigable for good sized boats, or even small steamers, during six, seven and even eight months of the year. The importance of this fact is evident. The productions of the 'Juramento', or upper Salada, can be transported by water to Matara whence a few leagues of land carriage places them in the Railway station in Santiago; for of course there will be a station there before long. The lower part of the river Salado may in time be made navigable, but the experience of the late Mr Rams has proved the existence of great but not unsurmountable difficulties. Where there exists a river with a considerable volume of water, navigation can always be made practicable, should the necessities of a large population require it. As a last resource the waters of the river can be turned into a canal.

THE FIRE.

About 9½ p m on Friday night, a man with a clean white apron rushed into the street at the corner of Calles Cangallo and Maipu, yelling 'fuego! fuego!' It was the proprietor of the almacen at said corner. His premises were in a blaze owing to a cask of spirits of wine having burst and taken fire, and he himself was blazing too, on seeing which several bystanders knocked him down and extinguished him with the loss of his coat-tails and a few slight burns. In less than aminute there was a crowd in the street, and in five more it became evident that the almacen was doomed.

The first assistance came from the Policia, but the wretched little hand-pump kept there for such emergencies was of no use, and the whole almacen was speedily a roaring crater of flame, the light from which could be seen all over town. Soon the Bomberos came, then some companies of the 8th Line, and then some sailors from the Capitania, all of whom were in each other's way, as there seemed to be no one to direct in chief, the only unanimity was amongst the soldiers, who pounded away at the toes of the public with their rifle butts, and frequently varied the locale from the toes to the ribs. This is monstrous. What, in the name of common sense is the meaning of bringing soldiers with Remingtons to assist in putting out a fire? In Europe the military on such occasions are turned out in their shell-jackets, quite unarmed, to help the Firemen, while the police stick to their own duty of keeping back the crowd.

While the soldiers were smashing the public corns, the fire siezed on a broom shop in Maipu, a lodging house in same street, and a barber's in Cangallo. The brooms and the false hair blazed up like tinder, fed by the Oriza oil, soap, scents, etc. etc. As usual the supply of water was miserable. The Capitania men got a hose to work from the cake-shop in front; the Bomberos mounted to the roof of Mr Joseph Paz's house in Calle Cangallo, and two driblets of water were poured on the flames; but it was all of no use: The Fire King blazed away till 10¼ p m when the roofs of the broom shop and the almacen both fell in and helped to smother the flames, which were finally subdued about 11 o'clock.

The grocer's loss is 300,000 m/c insured for 50,000 pats. The barber says his part of the shave is at least $80,000 m/c. The broom-man says 60,000 would not pay him. As for the houses, which belonged to Mr Elortondo, they are completely gutted. Strange to say they were burned down before, some seven years ago.

The confusion was truly tremendous, and all kinds of mishaps are reported: Mr Larina, the grocer, is hurt, also his two assistants: the barber's assistant was nearly killed by a blow from an ax by a stupid Bombero; a lady in the Hotel La Paix nearly died of fright, and another lady, living near the fire, rushed out in terror with her four children and lost them in the crowd; they were found later on. We deeply regret to add that a little girl of 4 years, whose parents lived over the almacen, was burned to death, and a Bombero was killed by a falling rafter.

President Roca and the Chief of Police were early on the ground and remained till the last. The Bomberos behaved splendidly, but, without proper engines or hose, or fire-escapes', in fact 'sans everything,' their bravery goes for nothing. The conduct of the military on the ground is much blamed, and we hope that the next time they are sent to assist (!) at a fire, they will be ordered to leave their arms in barracks.

(From our Own Correspondent)

PRINCE BISMARCK AND THE IMPERIAL RESCRIPT.

On the 21st inst. an exciting scene occurred in the German Reichstag, on the occasion of the third reading of the Budget. Professor Haenel took the opportunity of discussing the merits of the famous Imperial Rescript. That document was issued by the King of Prussia and signed by Prince Bismarck as Prime Minister, but it is looked upon as an Imperial manifesto, and Prince Bismarck must have so construed it, or he would not have made his appearance in the German Reichstag to reply to Herr Haenel, even as he chose to explain, he appeared in that assembly only as a Plenipotentiary of the Prussian Monarchy. The principal objections raised by Professor Haenel were that although the general tenor of the Rescript might be constitutional, it was not constitutional to directly appeal to the will of the Sovereign and to drag the Monarch to the fore to cover the responsibility of Ministers, and thus to make the King responsible who by the Constitution is irresponsible. If, said Herr Haenel, the Federal Council is not pleased with the limitations to the powers of the Sovereign demanded by the people, then it confesses its displeasore with constitutionalism, and Parliament is justified in demanding explanations on the subject of the Rescript, which appears to menace its privileges.

Prince Bismarck, who entered the House whilst Herr Haenel was speaking, told the Assembly that he had risen from a sick bed to defend the Rescript. However, it was remarked that the Chancellor looked unusually well, and quite as well as could be expected from a middle-aged gentleman suffering from the chronic protests of a stomach desirous of modifications of a constitutional regime unsuited to newer conditions. The gist of Prince Bismarck's speech was this: the King—and it is evident we must also understand Kaiser—is not in Prussia as in England or other limited Monarchy where the Sovereign reigns but does not govern. On the other hand, the King of Prussia is not an abstraction or in the clouds, or like the Emperor of Japan, whose feet are shown periodically to his over-venerating subjects. The King of Prussia, like his great predecessor Frederick, and even the Electors of Brandenburg, is a positive and active existency, and is, in fact, the 'first servant of the State,' governing through the aid of the Legislative Chambers, but not by them nor with them. The Ministers are not mentioned in the Constitution. They are the servants of the King, who is not what Progressist orators might assume, and what M. Taine calls a 'President Honoraire,' but a 'real and actual Minister-President' of the Cabinet. Under the influence of constitutionmongers and political rationalists, like Professor Mommsen, these facts had been forgotten. It was the desire of the King, said Prince Bismarck, to recall to the mind of the nation the true position of the Monarch, and hence the publication of the Rescript, which was strictly within the lines of the Prussian Constitution. Fortunately, said the Chancellor, the constitutional theories of 1849 were far behind the ideal of Professor Haenel; were it not so Prussia would have had no reorganised army, and in 1864 she might have had another Olmutz, and the members of the Reichstag would not have been in their places, nor would the Reichstag have existed. 'I have always shielded Royalty,' said the Chancellor. 'I have been threatened with oakum picking in a penitentiary and confiscation of goods for doing so, and have been said to have shown cowardice in the service of my master. The falsehood of such a reproach must make the blush of shame mount to your foreheads.'

Here, of course, the uproar commenced with violent cries from the Left of 'not true.' The Chancellor stepped forward to the tribune, and with a face red with rage and attitude of defiance he said—'Do you mean to cry me down, gentlemen? Who is the man amongst you who makes the reproach? or as some versions of the speech have it, 'who dares to say so?' A voice replied, 'none said so.' 'Thank God for it,' said the Chancellor. 'Only a feeling of loyalty keeps me in my place; for the rest, it would heartily delight me to bid you farewell and see no more of you.' The Chancellor then returned to his seat and continued in a calmer vein to defend the parts of the Rescript referring to the influence and votes of officials in elections. The state officials he divided into two classes—political and non-political. The latter, he said, could vote as they please, but must not openly oppose the policy of the Government. There had been many acts of omission and commission among State officials it was the object of the Rescript to check, and he took the responsibility he said of that document and intended to defend it, not as the guardian of the Sovereign but as his servant.

Professor Haenel earnestly denied having reproached the Chancellor with cowadrice. This led to a new and serious personal altercation, finally subdued by the bell of the President and cries of 'order.' The Chancellor in great excitement and anger afterwards retired from the Hall.

This affair has naturally caused some excitement in Berlin, but it is not of much importance.

Every one knows Prince Bismarck, whom a certain class of people idolise as a subtle and mysterious being, whilst over and over again, as on this last occasion, he proves himself to be only too diaphonous. What most annoyed him was the plain truth Professor Haenel in his reply told him when he, in other words accused him of inventing the word 'cowardice' for the sake of getting up a scene. No one accuses the Chancellor of personal cowardice, but every one sees that he emphasises his own will by appeals to a national superstition. In this very last speech of his he repeats the device when he belauds himself for 'shielding Royalty.' Why should he shield it? and against whom? What he really does shield, and he cannot imagine that even German professors are such idiots as not to perceive it, is the supposed military necessity to preserve not only the absolutism rightly and constitutionally represented in the letter of the Rescript, but the more stringent and personal absolutism foreshadowed in the spirit and inopportuneness of the manifesto. For this same sin, or assumed sin, of promoting unconstitutional ends under constitutional forms and pretences, M Gambetta met defeat.

EDITOR'S TABLE

It was decided yesterday that the Exhibition shall be inaugurated on March 8th—next Wednesday week. Hooray!

The fire in Calle Cangallo on Friday night was the theme everywhere yesterday. It was not a first-class blaze by any means, such as Mrs O'Leary's cow provided for Chicago, and but for the want of all necessary appliances, the Bomberos would probably have mastered it and saved much property. It was a pitiable sight early yesterday morning to see the poor people sitting on the charred debris of their household gods, with black despair in their faces; one man was crying like a child. The grocer was insured, but the hair dresser and broom-maker have lost everything. See another column.

We are obliged to hold over our Rosario Letter for next issue. In our Supplement will be found Irish, Banda Oriental and Cricket news.

The gentlemen named by the Industrial Association at Rio to act as Brazilian Commissioners at the Exhibition are already installed and hard at work. The following are their names:—

President—
Commendador D Diego Santos
Vice-President—
Dr Pereyra Rego
Secretary—
D. Aifredo Camarate
Treasurer—
D. Abel Guimaraens
Honorary Members:
Conselheiro Baron de Gondin, Minister Plenipotentiary of Brazil,
Commendador Fleury, Secretary of Legation.
Dr Joao Adriao Chaves, Consul General.
Cavalheiro Rocha' Vice-Consul.
Navy Captain Saldanha de Gama, Commander of the Corvette 'Paranahyba',

Although the shops have been shut on Sunday now for some months past, by Municipal edict, the shopkeepers wont 'shut up'. They have raised another cry to be allowed to open to-day, on the magnificently absurd plea that Carnival is to be interred this evening!! Shut up, gentlemen; in the name of common sense please shut up definitely, or at least till the Exhibition opens.

Dancing was the order of last night—the Progreso and Plata Clubs, all the foreign Societies and the theatres having thrown open their doors for masquerade balls. Seldom or never before were so many balls given in this city on the same night.

The Chascomus Cattle Fair will open on Wednesday next. The Southern Railway will issue return tickets available from Tuesday till Saturday next.

There was nothing startling from Montevideo yesterday, and it looks as if the predicted row has been postponed.

The new Municipal Lottery is the talk of the town, and just as soon as the decree is out the tickets for the prizes will be issued.

All our camp friends will go to Church on Monday, or rather we should say go to Church's estancia, where Messrs. Baltar and Quesada will hold the greatest auction of the season. Those who have seen the animals at the Rural Exhibition, at Mr. Church's stall, well know what class of animals are bred on the Reid estancia managed by Mr. Church.

Dean Dillon will celebrate a Requiem Mass at the Convent on March 1st. at 10 o'clock in commemoration of the late Father Fahy. A collection for the Irish orphanage will be made on the occasion.

The heat yesterday was so intense that we begin to think our Glasgow friend is right: he says March will be a broiling month. Should such heat increase in intensity, we invite our friends to free bathing at San Blas, where, according to last advices, they are wearing overcoats in the evening when the 'virazon' sets in.

The Villarino, which sails this morning, takes down iron 'mojones' for three English estancias on the Rio Negro.

We remind our friends that to-day the distribution of prizes at the Scotch Sunday School takes place: a most interesting and deserving ceremony, and we hope to see it well attended.

The Revista Medica reports the public health as much about the same during the past fortnight. The chemical analysis of the waters of the Riachuelo have proved the reverse of satisfactory, the refuse from the whiskey distillery and other factories having left the water in a worse state than it was during the yellow fever.

The Wax Works will leave for Rosario in a few days. President Roca visited them some evenings ago.

The new Rivadavia market will not be inaugurated till Tuesday next.

The names of the different sections of the Exhibition are now being painted over the windows outside. England and Germany are side by side in cousinly proximity at Mr Garrahan's corner of the Plaza The only things really ready for the opening of the Exhibition are the beer and the music. Mr Biekhert has tons of the first prepared for consumption, and Maestro Panizza has won the prize for the opening march. The Poets and the Pedagogues lag behind, and in case they stay there permanently, nobody will fret much.

The commercial body of the city are getting up an address of congratulation to Dr Plaza on his again taking a seat in the Cabinet Coach; already there are several hundred signatures to it, and it will be the most significant testimonial. The merchants only embody the feeling of the people of the whole republic, who feel that if hard times should come again, they will meet their master again in Dr Plaza, as they did before.

The rising town of Bragado is to have a new public market at once, and a branch of the Provincial Bank next year.

Some infatuated capitalists are going to start another newspaper in this terribly over-newspapered city. It is purely a question of how much they can afford to lose monthly.

The city tramways carried last year the enormous number of 15,862,780 passengers. Of these the City of Buenos Aires line carried 6½ millions, the Anglo-Argentine 3,184,000, the Lacroze 3,178,000, the Belgrano 1,782,000, and the Boca 1,215,000.

They had a terrific hurricane in Tucuman last week and immense damage was done to the sugar canes.

We endorse warmly the appeal of our colleague the Industrial to the Municipality to force the proprietors of coffin-shops to remove their repulsive wares from the public gaze. Visitors to the Exhibition, especially Europeans, will be intensely shocked and disgusted to find rows of ghastly coffins exposed for sale, like jewellery or high-heeled boots, in our most fashionable and frequented streets. Do, Mr Alvear, rid Buenos Aires of this disgusting eyesore. A scratch of the pen will do it.

Dr Filho, and Messrs Santos, A Guimaraes, Grimmer and del Carvalho, have arrived here from Rio as Brazilian Commissioners to the Continental Exhibition. We feel great pleasure in welcoming them all to Buenos Aires and hope they will enjoy their visit to the River Plate.

Ask no woman her age. Never joke with a policeman. Do not play chess with a widow. Be civil to rich uncles and aunts. Your oldest hat, of course, for an evening party. Always sit next the carver, if you can, at dinner.

ON 'CHANGE.

Feb. 25th

Patacons	25.02
Cedulas A	99⅝
Cedulas E	83
National Bank Shares	130⅝

The gold market to-day ruled duller than usual. Operations are becoming more difficult every day, and people will soon find it cheaper to convert their gold in the Bank than sell it on the Bolsa. Rates for end of March continue at 25.10, but for cash and end of month rates are purely nominal and at a very slight premium. In Cedulas prices ruled a little firmer, and the sales were brisker. In Series A some amounts were bought at 99⅝, which shews an improvement of ⅛ over yesterday's prices. In Series E prices are ¼ firmer and over 20,000 were sold at 83.

Twenty B. Aires Gas Shares were disposed of at 81 o/o. There is nothing doing in either Primitive or Argentine Gas Shares.

The heat, the speculation and the squeeze on Change for the month's liquidation continue; to-day the market opened triumphantly up and hard, but slackened off on one or two of the Italians selling, it would never do to push the shares to the top of the glass roof of the Bolsa; yet the Italians seem to have the market so completely within their control, that the question for them is not so much the price but the limit of differences which the market is able to meet. The tremendous sales by a well-known broker for the end of the month made some weeks ago, they say, are for account of a well known Argentine lawyer and capitalist; of course so long as th y can get good responsible men to dabble in the market, all is right, but the differences to be paid on the 28th are very severe and they said at the ring to-day stocks and houses must be sold to meet them, It is remarkable that we never had a greater period of stock speculation than at present and yet we have only one stock that people speculate in. This suggests the idea that National Bank Shares will pay any man well to keep, since every month they grow if not from intrinsic, at least from speculative value. There are men on Change so convinced of this that they borrow money at 90 days, put it into shares, sure that at the maturity of the bill the shares will be worth more than what they cost them, and the severe hardness of the share market now is attributable to the conviction amongst the holders that the price of the stock will be as high after as before the payment of the divilend, a rather remarkable experience on our Bolsa. The Italian King, they say, goes to Europe; this mission is according to general rumour to place the shares held by his syndicate in Italy, and people need not grin at the scheme, since it is a notorious fact that the largest holder of the shares of the Italian Bank are in Genoa, Milan, Florence, and London.

Mr James Lowry was welcomed on 'Change on his arrival from Montevideo: we note that the new Lowry Plaza off the Once Setiembre was crowded with bullock carts this morning.

The lands put up on Friday at Baltar's and not sold were lands inside and located on the Tres Arroyos; the valuation 200,000 m/c per league, was considered too high.

The lands at Rio Quarto sold yesterday at 2,000 pats per league were bought by a Belgian not an Englishman.

In the Maskelyne £30,000 stg. also came out to Messrs Carabassa & Co.

It is said that the Provincial Government intends starting a very large ostrich farm in Santa Catalina, where the model farm stands. The ostriches are to be African. The truth of the statement may be undoubted, but the question stands "when will the farm be started?"

All the rumors about Mr Cambaceres's resignation have been perfectly devoid of foundation, and only answered dearth of news among the reporters of some papers, who at their wits' end to find news, invent same. Mr Cambaceres, it appears, has never thought of resigning.

We remind our readers that patentes must be paid before the 31st of next month, unless they wish to pay a fine; the Provincial Government is at present naming the several juries to answer demands and complaints.

All the judicial authorities of the city are still hard at work transferring suits to their respective jurisdictions. It is questionable if all the expedientes will be classified before the end of next month.

The sales at the ring were as follows:—

Gold—
For March 31st 10,000 at 25.10

Cedulas—
For cash A 1,000 99⅝
For cash E 15,000 at 82½-83
For Feb. 28th A 20,000 99⅝
For Feb. 28th E 5,000 83
For March 31st E 5,000 83
Sales, 46,000.

Nat. Bank Shares—
For cash 100 shares 130½-⅝
For Feb. 28th 3,500 shares 130½-131-130⅜
For March 31st 2,100 shares 126½-⅔
Sales, 2,100.

B. Aires Gas Shares—
For cash 20 shares 81

A steady improvement is reputed both in lumber and iron. The export of same to the camp continues in a very large proportion; the sales of timber and rolls of wire at the railway stations shew the large demand in the provincial partidos.

A cargo of Cardiff coal has been sold in port at 9½.

The Continental Exhibition is the favorite topic of the hours and bets were freely made 6 to 1 that the inauguration will not take place on the 1st March. A wealthy subscriber of ours who visited the Once this morning nearly broke his neck trying to get a peep at the machines in his own 'local'. At the rate the exhibits are crawling in the inauguration will have to be postponed to some indefinite period. It is ridiculous to suppose for one moment that the doors can be opened on the 1st of March; there is in reality no such a thing as an exhibit in any of the foreign departments. As regards machines, Mr Forrester, is the only enterprising member who has put up his exhibits. The Buenos Aires section is no doubt going ahead, but the sister provinces evidence a melancholy proof of the 'mañana' system. With a little activity the inauguration might take place on the 15th proximo.

Commander Gargao was welcomed on Change to-day; his arrival means 250 more cases of Brazilian exhibits to the Exhibition. Messrs Conceigau & Co. had the Rio Branco specially engaged to bring up these exhibits free of charge. We congratulate these gentlemen on their patriotism and enterprise.

The Vasconia arrived to-day.

The fine Allan steamer Canadian leaves on 1st March for Havre, a full ship.

During last night's fire in the Calle Maipu the kerosene kegs in the almacen exploded with reports as loud as that of small cannon. The frequent fires of late point to the necessity of organizing efficient fire brigades; in this respect Portenos are far behind European 'bomberos.'

10,000 salted hides, Luro, sold yesterday at 47½, and 4,000 from L Repetto's at 47½; weight 65 lbs.

Gold is growing fainter every day. To-day some 20,000 $f were sold for the end of the month at 25. All day long brokers flitted across the hall offering gold at 25 01 for cash; the cheapness of gold no doubt at the present moment answers the necessities of many who have to close their liquidation. The money market is relaxing steadily and paper discounts are becoming easier at 7½ to 8 p. cent per annum. Gold discounts are very easy at 7 o/o. The banks also are now more liberal, and there is general feeling of reaction in the market since the good news from London.

Exchange is quoted at 49⅜, but business is very dull. Montevideo exchange rules from ½ to ⅝ o/o premium.

The news about wool is that the Once is empty, and that operations in consequence do not amount to much. Both arbistas and barraqueros have nothing to do.

Mr Ricardo Fernandez and family leave on Monday for Montevideo, where the Pacific steamer will take them to Europe. Mr Fernandes goes to Europe on business, but to devote his short time visiting Ireland and Scotland. We wish him a prosperous voyage.

At afterhours speculation in National Bank Shares became very active. The bulls were radiant with expectations of their 6 o/o dividend on the 1st of March, and the stock rose buoyantly as bears entered the market to buy and recoup. Over 4,000 shares were sold at rising prices; many operations were done at 130⅜ and 131 for end of the month; rates for end of March reached 127, and some sales, we believe, were effected at 127½. The attention of the market is fixed on Monday and the morrow; the bulls are confident and the bears look rather downhearted at the prospects.

At afterhours a few Cedulas of Series E were sold at 82⅔, showing that the scrip cannot maintain the quotation at 83 o/o. In Series A nothing was done; nothing offered.

The Sales at afterhours were—
National Bank Shares—
For Feb. 28th 300 shares at 131
For March 31st 300 shares 126⅜
Cedulas E—
For Feb. 27th 12,000 82⅔

Flour ... 346,638
Maize ... 244,420 kilos and 599 bgs.

"Exports of the week:—

"Wheat—
"Only very good qualities sell as the millers have plenty of grain on hand. Many lots are taken to deposit. Some Costa sold at 180-186 m/c, rivers 175-190 m/c. There is little or nothing doing in flour or lino. There is a slight rise in maize; nothing doing for exports."

We have been favored with a most important wool circular from Antwerp, but pressure on our space obliges us to keep same over till next Tuesday.

We take the following from the London papers to hand:—

"The settlement on the Stock Exchange has been concluded to-day, and five failures have been announced in connection with it, making six in all. These difficulties cannot be said to disclose a serious condition of things, more especially as the extent of the liabilities is understood to be comparatively moderate. The liquidation in Paris will be commenced on the first of next month, and a considerable amount of anxiety is naturally felt respecting it. Firms, however, having any pretension to stability are likely to receive any support that may be necessary, but it is scarcely to be expected that the settlement will be completed without some failures taking place. As we have already pointed out, the crisis being the result of injudicious speculation in Stock Exchange securities cannot by any means be compared to a commercial crisis, which is usually protracted, and consequently no serious after effects are anticipated. It is, in fact, more probable that a healthier condition of things will be brought about, and that in due course financial business will be resumed with greater confidence. The stock markets to-day have presented a firmer appearance, and a moderate recovery in prices has taken place.

"Consols after declining recovered to last night's level, the final prices being 99½-⅝ for money, and 99⅝-100 for the account.

"With regard to the suspended Paris bank, Lyon-Loire, it may be stated, in addition to the facts recorded elsewhere, that very large transactions were noted in its shares quite recently on the Paris Bourse, owing to some presumed dividends from the Banque Maritime of Austria, which it founded with a capital of 100 million francs. The Vienna papers stated that some 25 million francs had been paid in order to obtain the necessary legal concession. This fact led to the advance in shares to 1740. How far the present speculative craze is to be carried at the Bourse, it is difficult to say; but, as illustrating the preposterous extremes to which it is pushed, it may be mentioned that a company, under the title of La Financiere, has been formed, with a capital of four million francs, to 'work up' the financial columns of several of the Paris papers,—that is to say, to kindly provide investors and speculators with ready-made views and opinions touching the merits or demerits of whatever bubble may be in need of inflation. If this is not the age of brass, what is it?"

The following sales of real estate were registered at the escribanias:—

Calle San Juan No. 403 for 5,500 pats.
Calle Ayacucho No. 52 for 1,653 pats.
Calle Belgrano Numeros 32 to 38, for 8,000 pats.
Calle Santa Fe No. 501 for 4,133 pats.
Calle Victoria No. 345 for 3,720 pats.
Constitution Numeros 41 to 45 for 4,429 pats
Calle Santiago del Estero No. 468 for 4,050 pats.
Calle Ecuador between Santa Fe and Arenales, for 852 pats.
Province of Cordoba, 3 leagues 992 squares and 6,975 square varas for 12,186 pats with 39 squares.

The following late news about the Antwerp produce market, from Messrs Bunge & Co. of that city, under date Jan. 26th, 1882, is important:—

Wool—
The active demand about which we reported in our last issue has since given way to depression and a general unwillingness to operate on the part of buyers. This change for the worse is less due to the condition of trade than to the recent events in France where wild speculation in stock, after having drawn almost all classes of society into its vortex, has as usual ended in financial ruin and general consternation. Our rate of discount has been put up to 6 o/o and credits are difficult and kept within narrow limits, various failures of some importance in Verviers have further contributed toward creating uneasiness, and according to general opinion our next public sales will not pass off without a decline in prices being established. These sales are to open on the 1st proximo and will comprise about 5,000 bales Australian and 16,000 bales R. Plate, or nearly the totality of our stock.

Our statistical position is now the following:

	Bales.
Stock on 12th Jan. 1882		6,351
	Bales.
Arrivals from Buenos Aires	13,480
Do Montevideo	1,302
Do Rivers	101	15,383
Sales by private account	1,078	18,112
Public sales
Transit	1,651	2,729
Stock to-day		15,383

Sheepskins—
Business has been quite insignificant at unchanged prices.
Sales, 32 bales.
Stock, 168 bales.
Hides—
The business transacted during the past fortnight has been of moderate proportions and the market presents no new features of either interest or importance. Our stock of available hides is dwindling down to very small proportions which fact tends to strengthen the feeling: notwithstanding this, lower prices are pretty generally anticipated with the arrival of more liberal supplies.

Various parcels of new season Buenos-Aires Matadero ox have been sold at high, though somewhat irregular rates, say fr. 79 to fr. 83 for heavy and fr. 74 to fr. 76 for light, one parcel having been sold to arrive viz.:

Teniers, 1,000 Buenos-Aires Ingwersen 63.20 lb. at fr. 80, 25 kil. and over, fr. 74 light.

We also beg to mention the sale to arrive of the first two Liebig cargoes, no particulars known, January shipment, at secret prices probably fr. 76½ heavy and fr. 71½ light, which were taken by the local speculation.

No sales on the English coast.

Tallow—
The market continues without interest in the absence of stock and supplies. We refrain from giving quotations under these circumstances.

We take the following from the New York Daily Commercial Bulletin:—

"A letter from Buenos Aires, in the Economiste Francais, shows the progress that is making in that country in the cultivation of the sugar cane. The export of French sugar to the Argentine Republic has of late been very large, amounting to nearly 4,300,00 kilos in 1879, while Belgium sentan equal quantity. In 1880, the imports of refined had fallen off to 3,134,085 kilos for France and 2,742,251 kilos for Belgium, a decline of 2,580,262 kilos. As a great deal of French sugar is sent via Antwerp, this diminution touches France very nearly. The astonishing increase in the area planted with the cane can be best seen from the figures relating to the Province of Tucuman alone. In 1876, there were not 2,000 acres; in 1881, there were upwards of 6,000 acres, and the return had increased from 100,000 arrobes in 1876 to 720,000 in 1880. The crop in 1881 was very poor, owing to heavy frosts. Other provinces—Santiago, Jujuy and Salta—have also contributed this year, and with new lines of railroads, a further development will be given to the industry. The duties on imported sugars are from 25 to 35 o/o ad valorem."

"Some of the Paris journals have a peculiar way of diagnosing the present flurry on the Bourse—attributing it to the advent of the Gambetta Ministry and to no other political causes. But the trouble really seems to have originated in the exaggerated speculation of a few pretentious syndicates with more assurance than solid capital. "Settling day" on the Bourse seems to be doubly dangerous, as the rates for carrying over are high in proportion to the speculative spirit. For instance, the rate for carrying the Union Generale was 150 francs, the stock being only 2,500 francs—or 300 francs for one month. And for the Suez Canal shares 330 francs, or one-tenth of the share, was demanded."

We have received the following for publication in this column:—

Feb. 24th, 1882

To the Manager of the Campana Railway
Mr G O Clark,

Meantime no decision is passed in the complaint of the agent of the Proveedor, with regard to changed tariffs, you must maintain the former ones, as no modifications can be introduced in same, without approval of the Minister of the Interior.

At the same time I beg to inform you that the return tickets for thirty days, between B Aires and Campana, issued by the agents of the Tridente and Dana, are contrary to the decrees and regulations of the Government.

It is quite reasonable that a railway issue tickets in connection with steamers and other railways, but not so if agents of steamers issue tickets between Campana and B. Aires, which may give rise to license and mistakes.

When authorization was given to this connection of the steamers with the railways, it was with a view to save the public the trouble of transferring goods and buying fresh tickets, and the service was to be such as is in all other parts in similar cases, but not as done by your administration.

Finally, I must inform you, that this department would with pleasure witness any efforts to remove the inconveniences caused by the behaviour of the clerks, which gives rise to many complaints of partiality on their part to the steamers connected with your administration.

I hope Mr Manager, that you will consult the interest of the company you represent, and that you will avoid the repeated complaints, arising from the behaviour of the clerks to the Provsedor; I hope that you will adopt the measures to prevent same henceforward, since whether apparent or not, the alarm is spreading, and it will be necessary to adopt steps to cut short the inconvenience.

Reminding you of our last conversation on this matter, I invite you to put a stop to the present state of affairs; otherwise I will be placed in the necessity of not allowing the passenger train to enter the mole, and making the passengers alight in the station; thus there will be no advantage to the steamers through the way the employes send the passenger train alongside, and all will remain in identical conditions.

Hoping that your attention will be drawn to this matter.

I beg to salute you,
GUILLERMO WHITE
T. M. BELGRANO

For Breeders and Amateurs

The Famous Stud

OF THE

Establishment

Las Barrancas

Mares and Colts

Splendid Thorough Bred RaceHorse Sires, Durham Bulls and Cows Rams and Ewes.

In one word Liquidation of the celebrated establishment of Patrick Reid, Esq.

In charge of JAMES CHURCH Esq. Stud of

Las Barrancas

On Monday February 27th

at 12 o'clock

We shall sell the stock of above breeding establishment so justly famous for the many victories achieved on the turf by the excellent animals bred there.

Estancieros are well aware of the patience and untiring zeal displayed by Mr Reid informing this stud farm, as he selected and imported into this country, animals of great merit which have been under the immediate charge of Mr Church. Seldom is there an opportunity of this kind offered, and this is due only to Mr Reid's determination to retire from business.

Zeuone, San Jeane, Venus, Toscas, Pichon, etc, have given on our race courses ample proof of their blood by carrying off the highest prizes. With such facts before us, it would be quite superfluous to praise the breed of «Las Barrancas»;

N.E. There will be a special train and carriages at the station to take out and bring back all parties interested.

8000 Hectareas

O sean 3 leguas cuadradas

Campos sin igual en la seccion XVIII

8 años para el pago sin interes

Base de venta 40$ la hectarea

Campo de Inmenso Porvenir

Situacion Inmejorable

En nuestra casa Alsina 78

De tantos campos que se han ofrecido y se ofrecen todos los dias en venta, pocos pueden ponerse en parangon con este lote y especialmente con los que acaban de venderse en la Seccion 10 a razon de 101 ps. la hectarea, o sean 271,000 ps legua cuadrada.

El campo que ofrecemos en venta esta mensurado y amojonado por el Sr D Angel Silva, y sus pastos son abundantes y riquisimos, componiendose en gran parte de gramilla, trebol, alfilerillo, cebadilla, cola de zorra, etc. garantiendo que no hay medanos en toda la fraccion.

Esta a igual distancia de Buenos Aires que los campos del Venado Tuerto que se venden hoy de 300 a 400,000 ps. legua.

Pocas veces se venden campos en iguales condiciones, y se vende unicamente por ausentarse uno de los socios para Europe, maximo que hay quien lo arriende hoy en 12,000 pesos (doce mil) la legua.

Para demostrar lo infimo de la base que se ha fijado para la venta, queremos recordar algunas ventas, efectuadas en estos ultimos tiempos, algunas de ellas en estos dias.

Al señor Cadmus en la Seccion XVII por 130,000 ps legua, comprada para una compañia belga que esta ya mandando los materiales para alambrar el campo.

Las 19 leguas vendidas por el Dr. D. Marcelino Ugarte al nuevo Banco Ingles a razon de 160,000 ps al contado la legua, y se poblaran a no dudarlo en poco tiempo.

Esta fraccion que anchada queda a muy poca distancio de nuestro lote.

Los campos que acaban de venderse en la seccion 10 y cuyo termino medio da mas de 240,000 ps por legua, campos infinitamente inferiores, y para que no se crea que es charla nuestra los vendedores dan al comprador, por medio de un documento, un plazo de seis meses para que puedan cerciorarse de la verdad de lo que decimos y de que si no son mejores estas tres leguas que cualquier fraccion igual de las 85 leguas de esa seccion 10, se anulara la venta y se devolvera el dinero pagado.

Muchisimos son los pobladores que hay por aquellos parages, cerca de alli la fraccion marcada en el Plano con Pirondo y Escalante esta poblada por dos vascos, a quienes se lo vendieron aquellos.

Sabido es que Lincoln es el partido que se ha poblado mas rapidamente, y lo prueban los grandes establecimientos de los señores Duggan, Ostendorp, Samsen, Ricketts, Sanford, Brown, Carabasa, Lopez, Martinez de Hoz y muchos otros vecinos pobladores, no especuladores, y que no venderian sus campos por ningun precio.

La seccion 17 que hace tan poco que fue vendida por el Goiberno de la Provincia, esta llena de nuevas estancias como la de los Sres. Romero, Allan, Wilcox, Cabral y otros.

En cuanto a pronta comuniccion con los grandes centros, tenemos varias lineas de ferro-carriles que no son proyectos, sino que estan ya, puede decirse, en via de construccion, y antes de dos años tendremos el ferro-carril Trauandino, que pasara cerca de este campo, y el otro que ira a Tranquelauquen.

Pocos son los campos que le quedan para vender al Gobierno de la Provincia, y pueden estar seguros los compradores que todos ellos se venderan en las mismas condiciones de la seccion 10 y del campo vendido el 7 del corriente en el partido Nueve de Julio, cuya base era de $70,000 legua y fue vendido en 945000 pesos legua al Sr Unzue.

Queremos hacer presente tambien que la gran area vendida por el Sr Don Jose G Lezama al Sr Don Eduardo Casey, queda diez leguas mas afuera que este ofrecido en venta.

Con todos estos datos y las garantias de los vendedores respecto a la bondad del campo, este vale a no dudarlo $120 la hectarea !!! y con los 8 años de plazo sin interes vale 360 a 400,000 pesos la legua.

Los compradores firmaran pagares hipotecarios por los ocho plazos, entregando la octava parte al contado.

Prevenimos a los interesados que desde hoy tendremos a su disposicion un plano indicando la posicion exacta del campo, para que quedan mandar reviarlo con tiempo.

Una area de campo compuesta de dos leguas cuadradas de abundantes pastos, y cuyos linderos son los señores Emilio J Perez, Juan P Caurel, Puerto de la canal y J A Lousteau.

Uno de los mejores elogios que podemos hacer de estos campos es que el Gobierno de la Provincia vendio el 7 de Febrero en este mismo partido a razon de 600,000 m|c legua, y en el de Juarez por mas de un millon de pesos legua hace apenas un mes.

El dueño de este campo al ponerlo la base de 170,000 m|c legua, ha tenido en vista atraer el mayor numero de los pequeños capitalistas para que ellos puedan comprar areas menores, relativamente a las que hoy se estan vendiendo y que ellos determinan en el acto del remate cual es el valor de esta fraccion.

Este campo esta perfectamente situado y dista unicamente 14 leguas de Juarez.

Una de las mejores fracciones de campo al Norte y distante 15 leguas unicamente de la Capital.

La calidad del campo es de lo mejor que existe en cuanto a la clase de pastos, pues es de lo mas aproposito no solo para ovejas, cabañas, invernadas, etc, sino parr sementeras de toda clase de grano, pues la proximidad a los dos puntos de embarque que son Zarate y Campana, los gastos de trasporte son infinitamente mas reducidos que de cualquier otro punto de la Provincia.

Se sabe ademas que el Gobierno Nacional tiene la idea de prolongar el ferro-carril a Campana, por medio de un ramal hasta Zarate, que aumentaria naturalmente el valor de este campo.

Tanto este partido como los colindantes son por la calidad de sus tierras y pastos, los mas preferidos por la colonia irlandesa que como se sabe es la que ha sabido darle el verdadero valor a nuestra tierra, destinandolos para la cria del ganado lanar, que les ha dado tan brillantes resultados y como dicen ellos muy bien que hay campos como por 200,000 pesos legua y baratos por millon y medio y dos millones pesos la legua.

Todo esto que antecede son hechos, que esta en la consideracion de los que saben lo que puede dar una propiedad en condiciones como esta y que ahora mismo puede arrendarse a razon de 200 ps cuadra al año, y que equivale a un interes de 14,20 p|c al año sobre la base de 1600 que se ha fijado para la venta.

La venta se hara en dos fracciones, a saber:

Lote num. 1—40 cuadras cuadradas.

" " 2—33¾ id id,

Pero en caso que hubiese interesados en nuevas lracciones se podran hacer lotes al gusto de los licitadores.

Otra de las ventajas que no deben perderse de visto es la siguiente: el primer lote solo dista una legua escasa y el num. 2 media legua del pueblo Capilla del Teñor.

Este campo es conocido y esta señalado en Registro Grafico por de Gonzales y sus linderos son al Este Echohon, al Oeste Enrique Bird, al Norte E. Collinglean y al Sud el vendedor.

El Jueves 2 de Marzo

A las 3 de la tarde

Remataremos a la mas alta postura, pasando la base arriba fijada y dinero de contado, por orden terminante de su dueño.

El campo arriba mensionado compuesto de dos leguas cuadradas mas o menos, ubicado en el Partido de Dolores, distante 7 leguas de la ciudad del mismo nombre, lindando con los valiosos Montes del Tordillo, Baldomero Diaz, Santiago Bello, Juan Lopez, escribano, y Simon Palomequc; esta marcado en el Registro Grafico de la Provincia, con el nombre de Juan A Diaz.

Es campo de superior calidad para ovejas, por las buenas cañadas que tiene, asi que en verano nunca faltan abundantes pastos.

El campo para mayor facilidad de los interesados, se ha dividido en 4 fracciones de media legua mas o menos; pero podria venderse en uno o dos lotes de una legua cada uno o sera entregado amojonado en las dos primeras casas, pues la mensura hace muy poco que fue hecho.

En cuanto a la base yue son $350,000, nada tenemos que decir; este campo a las puertas de la capital vale el doble y una vez practicada la nivelacion de la parte Sud de la Provincia, valdra 60 p|c mas.

Esta propiedad reconoce una hipoteca a favor del Banco Hipotecario por valor de $f.18,000 de los cuales hay amortizados $f.2,000 y con los cuales podia seguir el comprador si le conviene.

El actual propietario vende este campo por no poder atender dos establecimientos, queriendo dedicarle todo su atencion a otro de mas afuera.

Las personas que quieran ver el campo pueden dirigirse al Sr Victor Dardegnac (Hotel del Sud en Dolores) o a Don Angel Escuder en el puesto de B Sosa, en el campo de Baldomero Diaz, lindando con este.

POOR B. O.

(REFLECTIONS DURING A LATE VISIT).

'My countrymen are ungovernable' said ex-President Latorre, as he threw down the reins after proving to them, to himself and to all the world that they are a most governable people. A people who know not how to govern themselves, therefore require governing, a people most amenable to the strong hand of a firm ruler.

Latorre in 1876 found a chaos, which he reduced to order; he upset a government of organized swindlers, he set up himself as an irresponsible ruler, and ruled the country to the advantage of all within it. The effects of this rule are yet visible. He found a universal contempt for all constituted authority, reverence only for brute force. He amalgamated authority and force, and the Orientales for the first time learned to respect an authority which enforced obedience. He did not teach his people the act of self-government, that is a science which no one man can teach to any people; it is science which must be learned by each individual member of the people by long training from the cradle upwards; the science of national self-government culminates in the golden rule 'thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.' Respect for the rights of others is the basis of this science. Latorre did not teach this respect but he enforced it. Robbery and murder, which had been almost daily events in the Banda Oriental, became under his rule almost unknown, and when known rigorously investigated and punished. The means he adopted were not constitutional, were not according to law.

'During the two years I served here under Latorre, I killed nineteen bandits'—said a quiet-looking ex-jefe to me one day—'and no one asked me a question about any of them.' This was not lawful, but it secured peace and order, it taught the one lesson Latorre did teach—respect for authority. He invariably supported his subordinates, even though their deeds were high-handed; what he would not pardon was inefficiency.

Murder and robbery had been accustomed to have everything pretty much their own way; the trammels of the law, intended for the protection of innocence, had acted only as a protection for evil-doers. Latorre swept these legal cobwebs all away, and made authority, not law, the protector of the law-abiding citizen. He proved that the ministry of the law could be strong in spite of the law itself. This lesson is not lost; there yet exists, after two years of 'constitutional' rule, throughout the Banda Oriental, a respect for the administrators of the law such as was never before known, but 'constitutional' law, weakening their hands, is rapidly undermining this respect and opening once more the flood-gates of anarchy.

Throughout the length and breadth of the land the people see this, and sigh in their inmost hearts and sometimes speak with bated breath their wish for a return of the iron rule of Latorre. It is not for Latorre himself they wish; Latorre never had any personal popularity; those who most eagerly wish him back would probably be the last to raise their hands to help him, were he to cross over. Measures not men is now the watchword; the reign of the caudillos is over.

Hence we have the transient popularity of Santos, once the right hand man of Latorre; some think the mantle of the ex-Dictator may fall upon him, and that he will rule with a like firm hand.

'How can you support a man like Santos?' asked I of an intelligent citizen.

'He is necessary,' answered he 'he has the troops and can keep order.'

'I prefer Santos to Latorre' said another, 'both can keep order, but Santos we can twist round our fingers, he knows nothing; in Latorre we would have our master!'

Vidal, once the cats-paw of Gen. Flores, lately the cats-paw of Gen. Santos, illustrious incompetency, neither bad enough to do evil or good enough to prevent it, has served his purpose, he has proved constitutional government another name for anarchy, amply proved by him once more. The ides of March are at hand and his time has come. A flourish of military music, a gleam of polished bayonets, and down goes incompetency, to make way for what? A military rule without the clear-headed firmness of Latorre, with more than his contempt for the ordinary forms of law. Santos. And why Santos? Because Santos has the bayonets at his back.

Elect Senators and Deputies at your will, ye citizens, they have experience in the art of 'how not to do it'—they are so patriotic that instead of crowding all their work into the legal five months' term, they carry it out from month to month all the year through, drawing salaries in proportion; but think not that in naming them ye named the representatives of the people, or that they will speak your words, if you put words into their mouths. See there in the Plaza Independencia, rank after rank in serried order on the 1st March, clean, neat, well-fed, well-paid, in orderly battalions, these are the representatives of the people. On their bright bayonets they raise Santos to the Presidential chair; to factious opposition the black mouths of their guns will speak the will of the people.

So does history repeat itself continuously: again we have the elections of the prætorian guards. Santos may do all that his warmest friends foretell of him; those guards of old did not always err in their election, Trajan and Vespasian to wit, whose glorious reigns may somewhat atone for the orgies of Vitellius, or the wanton cruelties of many of his successors, but Vitellius and Trajan alike worked unconsciously towards one inevitable end, the downfall of the Roman People.

STATE OF IRELAND.

REPORTED CONSPIRACY IN LIMERICK AND CLARE.

January 27th.

It is stated on reliable authority that the reasons for drafting additional troops into the South is that the Government have received from informers complete details of a vast conspiracy existing chiefly in Limerick and Clare. The conspiracy is said to be of a completely organized character, but the authorities are in possession of sufficient information to enable them at any moment to seize the chief conspirators, while the police are kept constantly informed of the different movements in contemplation.

A man named Mahony was arrested in Sackville-street to-day for circulating the No-Rent Manifesto at Naas fair a few days ago. Mahony had recently come from Cork, and was connected with the Political Prisoners' Aid Society. He was lodged in Kilmainham.

Messrs. M'Gough, solicitors to the late Land League, have written to the heads of the Constabulary and Dublin Police Force demanding their authority for seizing the United Ireland. The letter is written on behalf of Mr Moloney, treasurer of the Prisoners' Aid Society, and it contains an intimation that if the authority is not given within a week legal proceedings will be taken.

The police to-day seized 250 copies of the Irish World at the North Wall Quay. The paper is dated 21st January, and it is one of the most violent newspaper productions which have yet been brought into the country. The Dublin police to-day seized a large number of copies of this week's issue of the United Ireland. The seizures were made from newsvendors in the streets, and special police were sent out for the purpose.

The Vice-Chancellor to-day said the country, and especially the West, was in such a state at present that the old common law remedy of distress was useless. He did not think, however, it would be impossible to procure persons to act as receivers over estates, and any one who went into the country with the determination to break down the illegal combinations which exist would receive the utmost support and protection from the Government.

At the half-yearly meeting of the Munster Bank to-day the chairman (Mr Wm Shaw, M P), in proposing the adoption of a 10 per cent dividend, said that notwithstanding the great depression the country had experienced the bank was in a satisfactory condition. He had no doubt they were entering on a period of prosperity, and with the prosperity, industry and capital would be employed for the advantage of manufacturing industry which would give employment to the redundant population and the families of small farmers.

The most satisfactory feature in the news from Ireland is the fact that the ordinary law is very generally resuming its course and its force. Mr. Justice Fitzgerald bore testimony to this welcome phenomenon in his address at the Cork Winter Assize. He paid a tribute not only to 'the wonderful "discrimination and impartiality," but to "the remarkable courage and "fearlessness" with which the jury had discharged their duties. Similar acknowledgements have been made by other Judges in other parts of the country. Irish jurors have never been wanting in the intellectual qualities requisite for the performance of the functions belonging to them. The bovine stolidity not unknown within English jury-boxes is seldom to be seen in Ireland. But the moral qualities—the impartiality, the courage, the fearlessness—have not always been as conspicuous. The verdicts show a changed social and political feeling. We do not wish to intimate that in the cases to which Mr. Justice Fitzgerald and his colleagues on the Bench have referred the verdict has been dictated by regard to anything but the evidence. The satisfactory feature is that the kind of prejudice and panic which have too often of late obscured the evidence seems to be clearing away, Irish jurors are recognising the fact that the law is their best friend, and the violaters of it are their worst enemies. They see another notable thing. The crimes that come before them for trial are in almost every case committed on the poor. Mr. Justice Fitzgerald pointed out in his address at Cork, that there had been no instance of outrage directed against the upper class. No gentleman's life had been taken; no agent's [or landlord's house had been broken into. The objects of violence and intimidation had in every instance been the poor. The promoters of disorder and revolution in Ireland reverse the French maxim. They make war not on the castle, but on the cottage. The Irish farmer and peasant are beginning to see this, and their perception is recorded in the verdicts which they give.
